A Trite Saying.

It is a trito saying that no man is stronger than his stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strongthens the stomach—puts it in shape to make pure. rich blood—helps the liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidneys to expel the poisons from the body and thus cures both liver and kidneys to the brain and nerves. The wesk, nervous, run-down, debilitated condition which so many people suffer from, is usually the effect of poisons in the blood; it is often indicated by pimples or boils appearing on the skin. the face becomes thin and the feelings blue. Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" cures all blood humors as well as being a tonic that makes one vigorous, strong and forceful. It is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that contains neither alcohol nor harmful contains neither alcohol in a little beok of extracts from standard medical writers of this country. According to the child's statement, his father killed Mr. and Mrs. Lyerly, and Jack Dillingham murdered the two and Jack Dillinguam murdered the two Lyerly children. Nease Gillespie used Lyerly's axe, and Jack Dillingham took Gillespie's. The men stopped at a branch after the deeds were committed and washed the blood from the axes.

The child's story is to the effect that his father and Dillingham burned the clothing they were the night of the murders, for there were blood spots on their shirt fronts and on their overalls.

The motive, according to the child's story, was due to a settlement the men had made over some wheat that had been threshed only a few days prior to the murders. Nease Gillespie had planted some wheat on Lyerly's land and he and Dillingham had gathered it. In the division the two negroes thought that Mr. Lyerly had taken advantage of them. The boy said boy said he heard the crowd return saying they had killed the Lyerly family. They cursed and said they were glad they were dead, and they were glad the

All five of the negroes surpected of he murder of the four members of the Lyerly family are in jail at Charlotte, N. C. Nesse Gillespie, the father of the child who made the statement of the way the crime was committed, was told what his child has said last night. He seemed to be greately agitated but declared that not a word of the statement is true. He had Dillingham say they were nowhere near the Lyerly home the night the crime was commit-

Man and Woman Assaulted. Bertha Bowlin and Frank Kern, each twinty-one years old, were found unconscious yesterday in Kansas City, Mo., on the west bluffs overlooking the railway yards. The couple had been as-saulted during the night. The woman will die and the man may not recover.

will die and the man may not recover. Albert Crone, who is also twenty-one years of age, and is a stock-yard em-ploye and a member of the Third Regiment, Missoura National Guard, was arrested later and held by the police for investigation. Crone kept company with the woman last year, and had beaten her at that time. When arrested, there was blood on his clothing.

Bertha Bowlin had been struck with a piece of iron or a lead pipe, according to the police, and her skull and one arm fractured. Kern also had been severely besten, but his injuries were less serious than those inflicted upon the woman. Neither Miss Bowlin nor Kern regained consciousness sufficiently to tell of the assault. The scene indicated a struggle. The woman, after being as-saulted, had been dragged to the side of the bluff and pitched over. Kern, who An exceptional line of large and is a painter, was a boarder at the home of Miss Bowlin's parents. The couple were last seen Thursday evening at 9 o'clock, when they started for a walk. Miss Bowlin, according to members of her family, had jilted Orone for Kern.

Ancient Order of Hibernians.

The national convention of the An cient Order of Hibernians accomplished a large amount of business at Saratogs, N. Y., yesterday. The report of the committee on the ladies' auxiliary con-tained a complete plan for the conduct of the auxiliary under its own national officers, but the supreme authority is still vested in the national president of the Hibernians. The new plan allows One Price Clothier and the auxiliary the privilege of electing four national officers, of levying its own assessments and of distributing its own

> The report of the committee on Irish history favored the introduction of Irish history in public and parochial schools, recommended arousing the interest of State chaplains and national officers on the subject, and also recommended that the support of Hibernians be withdrawn from those publications that caricature and villify the Irish race.

Suicide of a Foreman.

David A. O'Neal, foreman of the composing department of the Houston Printing and Publishing Company, at Hampton, Va., committed suicide in his room at the Augusta Hotel yester-day by firing a bullet into his heart from a revolver. While no cause for the rash a revolver. While no cause for the rash act of the young man is known, it is thought that he ended his life because of a disappointment in a love affair. He had been spending several days at Ocean View, where a Miss Price, said to have been the young man's sweetheart, is now staying. Upon his arrival at Hampton from the resort yesterday morning O'Neal talked about his trip, saying that he had a good time. He then went to his room, and no more was seen of him until W. J. Hudgins, a personal friend, went to the man's room at noon. Hudgins knocked, and, upon receiving no response, had a maid open the door. He found O'Nesl lying upon the bed dead. In a note he left the dead man asked that his mother (Mrs. D. L. O'Nesl, of Lynchburg) and Miss Price, at Ocean View, be notified of his death. He did not give any cause for the sui-Hampton from Richmond several months He was a native of Lynchburg.
